LEVANTINA
THE NATURAL STONE COMPANY

LEVANTINA GROUP is dedicated to the extraction, elaboration & commercialization of Natural Stones. Furthermore, it also manufactures porcelain at thin thicknesses, therefore making it an internationally active company with a fundamental exporting vocation.

ITS VISION

A leader in the global surfaces market, offering architectural products and solutions to our clients that add beauty and durability.

ITS MISSION

Consists in continuously innovating and developing its products, systems, processes, and services, to ultimately keep its customers satisfied and therefore create value for its shareholders, as well as having a motivated and qualified workforce.

ITS VALUES

Performance, success, integrity, motivation and flexibility.

In line with the company's strategic plan, LEVANTINA GROUP's quality and environmental policy is based on offering the maximum level of satisfaction of its stakeholders, by following sustainable development values and business ethics in the development of its activity.

In this respect, LEVANTINA GROUP's commitments are to:

- Encourage continuous improvement in the management of quality and environmental development, in order to meet the expectations of its customers and stakeholders, and therefore increase their level of satisfaction and confidence.
- Guarantee the fulfilment of the regulatory and legal requirements applicable to its products and activities.
- Count on a highly qualified team, by equipping them with adequate training and resources in order for them to carry out the company's targets and improve the environmental performance.
- Strengthen its commitment to the protection of the environment and prevent contamination by involving the entire organization in the environmental management system.
- Establish the quality and environmental targets and verify their compliance regularly by dedicating the necessary resources.

LEVANTINA GROUP's senior management reaffirms its commitment to this policy, therefore making sure that it's understood, implemented and maintained at all levels of the organisation.
